CITY REVITALIZED

Convention center will give Romulus a boost

By DALE GOWING Of The Roman Staff A revitalization of Romulus is anticipated by city officials with the coming of a $20 million, 75-acre civic center to the city.

Plans and a scale model of the pending development, which will include an 85,000-square-foot civic auditorium and convention center, a 200,000square-foot enclosed, climate controlled shopping mall and a 300-unit high-rise apartment complex for senior citizens, were unveiled Thursday at a banquet at the Romulus Ramada Inn. The civic center, mall and a partment complex, to be called the Romulus Metro Plaza, will be constructed on Wayne Road, between Ecorse Road and awaited growth. "To the best of our knowledge there is no other community in Michigan of Romulus' size that can boast of a facility offering the positive features and capabilities of our new Romulus Metro Plaza," he said. "We think it will generate a tremendous amount of business in the city and open the door for better roads, more people and better business in the community.

Troutt especially is excited about the potential of the convention center in the plaza, which is being eyed as an ideal site for trade fairs and conventions which are perhaps too small to use the massive Cobo Hall in Detroit.

He said experts claim there is a definite need here for a convention center of the size proposed for Romulus, and that its importance is even more magnified by the presence of several hotels and motels in the Merriman-I-94 area.

ALTHOUGH THE plaza plans of-ficially were revealed Thursday, The Romulus Roman had reported several months ago that a shopping plaza and senior citizen apartment complex were on the drawing boards for the city.

Troutt said the $20 million cost figure for the project is a "rough estimate" on land and building totals. The entire project will be financed by a public sale of bonds within a few months and construction is slated to begin by early spring 1975.

A completion date was not given, but Troutt said it should take eight to nine months to finish.

The mayor stressed that there will be no cost to the city for the operation of the convention center portion of the complex, since it will be financed by promoters renting the facilities. The shopping plaza will be funded by the merchants located there.

INCLUDED IN THE plaza plans is a new 34th District Court. Contained in the auditoriumconvention center area will be a 30,000 square foot exhibit and banquet area, restaurant and lounges, and a 4,500-seat theatre in-the round.

A half-acre reflecting pool will be located opposite the apartment com-plex, to be called Orchard View Apartments. The building will contain are Wrigley Super Markets, Twin

'Our senior citizens can be proud of their apartment complex featuring a 24-hour security system and graduate rent structures," Troutt said. THE PROPOSED shopping mall will be adjacent to Orchard View, and contain a major super market, drugstores, garden center, twin theaters and complete shopping facilities. The mall area will be spacious enough to contain many civic and cultural displays, officials said. Already listed as prospective leasees be built on Wayne Road south of Ecorse Road and north of I-94. Construction is slated to begin on the $20 million complex in early spring.

Movie Theatres. Cunninghams and a nationally known hardware chain store. Plans to locate a bank in the center also are being finalized, along with a medical-clinic facility which would be assessable to the senior citizens' apartment complex.

The civic center complex is being designed by the architectural firm of Richard R. Jancen Associates, with environmental design by Christopher Wzacny and Associates, Inc., of Birmingham.

The mall is being designed and built by Capital Expansions, also of Bir-

Romulus eyes business

By DALE GOWING Of The Roman Staff

There is a lot of convention business Detroit and the metropolitan area are missing out on because Cobo Hall is too big, the downtown hotels are too small, or Detroit's crime record is too deterring.

That's the feeling of Romulus officials and promoters of the proposed 75-acre Romulus Metro Plaza, and they are prime reasons for wanting to construct an 85,000-square foot civic auditorium and convention center within the plaza. Such facilities are just what the doctor ordered — not only to attract conventions to Wayne County, but to serve as a commercial thrust to Romulus, they believe. "THE NEW convention center will have 4,500 seats, which is no comparison to anything in Cobo Hall," said Mayor Terry L. Troutt. "But it could be ideal for many smaller conventions. Some companies also are holding conventions in various hotels but those usually are of insufficient size.

"And a lot of people are afraid to go to Detroit for a convention at Cobo," he said. "Hopefully, people will prefer to come to Romulus for conventions and trade shows because it is nearer the airport."

Troutt said that experts have told the city "there positively is a need for this in the metropolitan area," and especially

WCRC quashes rumor about more expansion

The Wayne County Road Commission (WCRC) is trying to quash rumors that the county is buying up land along Eureka Road between Inkster Road and Middlebelt to facilitate further expansion of Detroit Metropolitan Airport.

"It's not true," assured Louis J. Sugo, public relations director for the WCRC, who telephoned The Romulus Roman with a plea to end the rumors.

"The county activity in that area is in regard to a road-widening project for Eureka, and not related to the airport,"

He added that he had received letters from residents concerned about further airport expansion. The WCRC operates

Apparently the residents were worried that the county was buying up the land with the anticipation of expanding the airport that way, he said. A legal battle already is in the courts over a runway expansion program in the southwest corner of the airport.

Sugo assured that the land is being worked for widening purposes only. He said that the actual widening of Eureka from two lanes to five should begin in

Commissioners expect to conduct flood study

Wayne County Drain Commission officials are expected to petition the City of Romulus soon for permission to conduct a flood plain study in the eastern portion of the city in preparation for a proposed storm drain construction project.

According to Romulus City Attorney William S. Munger, the drain commission needs the approval of Romulus Mayor Terry L. Troutt and the city clerk, Leonard Folmar, to proceed with the study, which must be made prior to any construction.

The approval is expected to be granted, since Romulus is a major proponent of the drain plan.

MUNGER SAID a representative of the federal Corps of Engineers told a meeting of drain authorities Monday that a $30,000 federal appropriation for the flood plain study might be forth-

The Environmental Protection Agency also is expected to begin a study soon, to determine the effect on the environment of the new drain.

The large-volume drain, which would run through Romulus and Huron Township before emptying into the Huron River for deposit into Lake Erie, would facilitate quicker and cheaper storm water run-off in the two communities and the Detroit Metropolitan Airport, officials said.

Storm water now flows through a complex chain of ditches through Western Wayne County and downriver communities before emptying into the Detroit River. The new system would be a more direct route for drainage and help eliminate flooding, Troutt added.

THE PROPOSAL calls tentatively for the drain to begin parallel to Harrison Road near Van Born in Romulus, then continue south through the airport and Huron Township before emptying in the Cost of the drain would be about $15 million, with Romulus paying about 35

Michigan Bell, built on the base of service and dedicated to providing telephones for everyone who needs one, finds it must cut back - a painful process for those who have never had to use it. IT IS A CONGLOMERATE of troubles inflation which sends operating and construction costs soaring, severely reduced profits which discourage investments needed for capital expansion, and the rates. Since 1967, the Detroit consumers price index has risen 43.5 per cent, while telephone rates have gained 15.8 per cent. Company officials said it is the clear and visible nature of the problem. "The telephone business doesn't generate enough capital to keep the business going," said Michigan Bell President David K.

"We used $230 million in (borrowed) capital last year. We do put in large amounts and we're earning less and less on the money we put in," he added.

In April, the company filed for an $111,400,000 rate increase with the Michigan Public Service Commission (PSC), proposing

Michigan Bell, which has 87 per cent (5 million telephones and 2.7 million customers) of the telephone business in Michigan, increased its earnings by only $1.1 million last year and its profit now stands at 6.54 per cent compared to the 7.9 per cent overall return

The Detroit commissioners on the county board, however, don't see it that way.

They favor keeping all circuit court activities downtown, readily accessible to most legal facilities. And, naturally, keeping all of the court action there would bring shopping dollars into the city. According to Romulus City

Clerk Leonard Folmar, who represented the city at a Monday meeting of court and county officials, an impasse has been reached between the two factions over the legality of locating a court branch in Western Wayne County.

He said opponents of the new court claim the law states that all circuit court action must take place in the county seat (Detroit).

Michigan However, Supreme Court Justice John B. Swainson said that in his opinion, a court branch could go anywhere in the county that Folmar said.

Bell--a picture of utility in trouble

"We're in the position of being the poorest earning company in the (Bell) system," Easlick said. "We're asking for a rate increase of $1.50 a month, or a nickel a day.

"We've been going down and down and we've got to turn it around. Unless we get some relief..."

The quality and promptness of service already are in decline. Without help, the company will be down to providing a 2-party line as its highest standard in new homes and reconnections for families who move already are being delayed for days.

THE COMPANY is in the nationwide Bell System. Easlick, while mourning Michigan Bell's financial condition, said it ranks in the top one-third of the system in service and efficiency.

That's one of the big reasons for the pain of having to cut back, but the business must go on.

Michigan Bell has a tentative contract settlement with its labor force calling for a $100 million over the next three years. The agreement goes to a union ratification vote this month.

"We don't expect our employes to subsidize lower rates with their salaries and wages," Easlick said. "We have to pay our employes competitive wages.'

THE PAYROLL has been reduced by 275 vacated jobs from June 25 to mid-August. The company halted the purchase of 500 new cars and trucks and deferred the elimination of 8-party Easlick said the company has to delay some of the 150 building projects in 90 cities, costing $53 million. If they are all delayed, 2,100 building tradesmen will be affected.

Other cutbacks will be in the number of outside cables scheduled for installation this year. The company has been holding up on its charitable contributions this year or "until the health of our business improves."

"Stated quite simply, we don't have enough money coming in to provide the same high quality of service," Easlick said. "We obviously won't be able to do everything as promptly as we do now.'

THE EFFECT on Michigan Bell will ripple out to suppliers and others, costing revenue and jobs and affecting the economy which depends for life on the veins and arteries of telephone and the people

The company's headquarters in Detroit has reduced lighting in the offices and corriders. Thermostats have been turned down to 68 in winter to observe the energy conservation ethic - but also to save money.

Company vehicles drive at or below the 55-mile-an-hour speed limit to achieve the same purposes.

IT IS CONFUSING to Michigan Bell, and to utility executives generally, that their rates are singled out for public abuse when the cost of living has risen 43 per cent more since 1967.

Thus, in comparison with the current prices of most other goods and services, telephone service remains a bargain, not a burden," the company said in its latest rate increase petition.

"The future ability (of the company) to maintain this favorable relationship will be dependent on its ability to earn at a level that will enable it to continue to finance the very large investments in new and better equipment and facilities upon which efficient, lower costs of operation are dependent."

Rosenberg and fellow Republican Lenton G. Sculthrop agreed against Democrat William R. Ralls.

Ralls' dissent showed up again in the rationale of Judge Warren's reversal order. Ralls said the majority decision appeared 'only to deny the company's desire for higher profits.

'IN REALITY, this decision prevents the public, the commission staff, and the commission itself from any deliberations on this issue...

The fundamental right to a fair hearing, to be heard and to have one's evidence considered, is guaranteed to everyone who comes before this state's courts and administrative agencies. 'The popuarlity or unpopularity of one's cause, or the size of one's purse, should neither expand nor constrict the substantive procedural and guarantees of due process of law which are assured to both the humblest and the most mighty. Easlick would like a wage adjustment clause, similar to the natural gas fuel adjustment clause which allows gas and electric companies to pass through to customers in higher rates any increase in wholesale gas

AN ADVERSARY relationship has developed between utilities and political people, who can make hay with the public by fighting to keep rates down in the short-term despite the certainty the ratepayer will suffer from higher capital costs later.

A Michigan Bell case in 1968 brought Atty. Gen. Frank J. Kelley up swinging, his first real foray into the utility rate arena in which he is now a familiar combatant. Asst. Atty. Gen. Hugh Anderson, Kelley's utility-watcher, tells the story:

The PSC gave Bell an order allowing a $1 charge for unlisted telephone numbers, previously free, and to in-crease installation charges, all without hearings in volation of state law.

"I heard about it and told the attorney general it had happened and that we might be interested," Anderson said. "He (Kelley) called the PSC and convinced them they had violated the

"THEY (BELL) agreed to drop the increase, which was worth $4 to $5 million to Bell. This convinced us that the commission bore some watching and when other rate cases were filed, we got into them.

"We saw the utilities were overstating their claims and have remained doing so.

But Anderson's explanations won't fly at Cass and Michigan in Detroit where Michigan Bell executive offices rise on the fringe of an urban renewal

"We could have earned more than we did last year ($1.1 million increase) by putting our money in the bank, Easlick said

MICHIGAN BELL'S net investment grew by $230 million.

It's been a tough road for Michigan Bell since its growth started from 100,000 telephones in 1906. The company installed its one millionth telephone on August 31, 1942.

The company grew to two million telephones on July 12, 1952, to three million on Sept. 14, 1961, to four million on Sept. 8, 1967, and to five million on July 20, 1973.

Michigan Bell has been cricized for its advertising at a time when it needs capital, additional employes and cash. "IT (ADVERTISING) has paid us dividends," Easlick said. "Our com-pany is losing $3 million a year to competitors.

There have grown up private businesses which provide telephone equipment (interfaced with Bell) and radio-oriented service along the lost popular routes (between Detroit and Chicago, for example) which Bell counts on to help finance the less profitable routes.

At Michigan Bell headquarters, there is another evidence of the cutbacks. Personnel Vice-President W. Ricks Littell was transferred to A.T. & T. headquarters in New York Aug. 1 to become director of sales development. HE WAS SUCCEEDED by G. Robert Harrington, public relations vice-president, whose duties were absorbed by Lloyd Haynes, now vice-president for public relations and revenues. Scratch one vice-president and one secretary from the executive payroll.

The financial condition of Michigan Bell is giving Easlick and others the jitters, and the future in the money market is dark

The last Bell system company in the bond market was Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co., headquartered in Denve. It had an AAA rating and was forced to pay 9.73 per cent interest, the highest ever for a system company.

Michigan Bell's last experience, also with an AAA rating, was in November 1972 with $72 million in debentures at 7.128 per cent interest and $50 million in six-year notes at 6.47 per cent.

PUTTING THE FACTS together with the future, Michigan Bell isn't in the desperate condition of Detroit Edison and Consumers Power.

But the future is dark and Ma Bell, the voice with the smile, isn't smiling.

News backing is effective

Editorial endorsements of candidates by newspapers may have a greater effect on voters than generally was believed in the past, according to a study put together by a University of Michigan researcher.

John Robinson, of the U-M's Institute for Social Research (ISR), has concluded that Richard Nixon won the 1968 general election because 80 per cent of the newspapers in America endorsed

Robinson conducted a detailed study of voter trends and newspaper endorsements and found a definite pattern of voters being influenced by newspaper endorsements presidential elections over the past 20

HE FOUND THAT in close presidential elections, the years 1960 and 1968, the endorsements affected mainly independent voters. In t 1956, 1964 and 1972 the endorsements had a wider influence, affecting the votes of both independents and members of the losing party. For example, he said in an article in the ISR's winter, 1974, newsletter, both independent and Democratic voters were influenced in 1972 and showed different voting habits depending on what candidate was endorsed by the candidate they read most often.

The study showed 50 per cent of independents reading pro-McGovern newspapers voted for McGovern, while 26 per cent of the independents reading pro-Nixon papers voted for McGovern.

Nearly the same margin separated Democrats, with 71 per cent of those who read pro-McGovern newspapers voting for McGovern and only 46 per cent of those reading pro-Nixon newspapers voting for McGovern.

The votes of Republicans in the landslide year were not noticeably affected by endorsements, Robinson

AFTER CHECKING the figures, the researcher added that he found roughly a three per cent shift in the total vote attributable to newspaper endorsements, meaning Nixon's was three per cent higher than it would have been with a 50-50 split in endorsements and McGovern's was three per cent

That difference doesn't mean much in a landslide, but in a close election, such as 1968 in which Nixon won by only one per cent, it is decisive, he said. He added that the same three per cent change figure applied to the 1968 election, meaning Humphrey would have won by two per cent if he had picked up half the newspaper en-

Robinson is in the process of hlishing the cluding a breakdown of the raw data involved in the study.

He said he was surprised by what he found, since he had held the assumption with many others that if the people's votes are affected by any one factor, it would be the constant barrage of political messages that come over the air waves each election.

WHILE VOTERS may rank television as their most important source of campaign news, they appear to be more often persuaded by newspapers, he says.

Perhaps, this is because "the newspaper endorsement is perceived as a nonpartisan message which appears to cut through the confusing arguments of the campaign and reduce them to a saigle conclusion," he added.

If nothing else, his study shows the whole question of elections and campaigning still is more an art than a science and no one really has all the answers on how to sway voters.

Romulus does its job in removing eyesore

Our congratulations are extended to the City of Romulus for finally taking action in the removal of an abandoned, burned-out house at Wayne and Ecorse roads. City officials razed the eyesore shortly after The Enterprise-Roman editorially urged them to do so, but primarily because the officials realize that their pride for their city only can be enhanced by the removal of such un-

Officials said there was a lot of "red tape" to cut through before demolishing the house, but evidently those details were taken care of last week. The unsightly mess is gone.

The citizens and businessmen of Romulus, we are sure, will along with us thank the city for doing its job and making Romulus a nicer, neater place in which to live.

Residents urge city to change ordinance

To The Editor: Harmless rummage, yard and garage sales have been placed under the jurisdiction of the City of Belleville. This was accomplished on Sept. 16 when the Belleville City Council passed an ordinance imposing license fees on the types of sales mentioned.

Do the city fathers realize that these sales help residents clothe themselves and their families at lower prices than some of the inflated prices in department stores? Do the city fathers realize that these sales help residents pass on un-wanted and unused household items at lower cost to buyers?

We feel that this new imposed fee for garage, rummage and yard sales will not accomplish what it was hoped to accomplish that is "to prevent the abuse of those sales by persons using them as a full-scale business.'

The aforementioned will be able to afford the license fee or will move their base of operation just outside of the City of

Candidates 'duck'

Old debate question

By BOB BERG

Enterprise-Roman Bureau Chief

One of the dangers of the long, drawn out campaigns which are inflicted upon the American voter is the possibility unimportant issues will become a central focus.

A candidate can get attention talking about such issues as taxation, transportation and the economy only so long, especially if he wants to keep his remarks couched in terms that doesn't get too specific. But the candidate needs something to talk about because he spends so much time talking. Enter

SOMETIMES this is a valid point. The candidate who refuses to be seen at any time near his opponent can probably fairly be accused of being afraid of having a one on one comparison made. But more often the question gets mired down in a mish mash of claims and counter claims, charges and

Resident extolls beauty of Michigan

By LEE SMITH

Suburban Living Editor Michigan's Upper Peninsula has been home for the Donald Dempseys of Denton Road, Belleville, since leaving the area in late May for their cottage. And as of this date, the couple are wending their way to their copper country home in Laurium to enjoy nature's beautiful color season and, possibly, some snow. During their cottage stay at Curtis on Big Manistique Lake, the Dempsey's guests have included his mother, Mrs. La Lone of Dearborn; their son Donald, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Albertson of Ypsilanti.

'Having been a native, so to speak, of the copper country,' Mrs. Dempsey states, "I can only say that to appreciate its grandeur and beauty, one must see it! All seasons are breathtaking. Little do the persons traveling to European countries and elsewhere realize what they are missing in our great state of Michigan." U. P. travel bureaus take note: Mrs. D. would make a terrific agent for selling your area!

Barrels of Meat shipped by Anderson were marked "E:A.-U.S." When some soldiers asked what the letters stood for, they were told, "The E.A. stands for the man who accepts it, Uncle Sam." Belleville farm leader to head committee

A prominent Belleville farm leader and member of the Michigan Farm Bureau for three years has been appointed to the bureau's Policy Development Committee.

James Sayre of 6585 Morton Taylor Rd. accepted the position as member "at large" on the 20-member committee.

"I feel it's a great responsibility as far as the organization goes," Sayre said. "The committee is responsible for setting policy for the coming year, aimed at representing the state's farmers in Lansing."

THE COMMITTEE IS charged with the job of compiling and studying nearly 1,000 proposed policy statements submitted by the 69 county farm bureau units of the state and various commodity advisory committees.

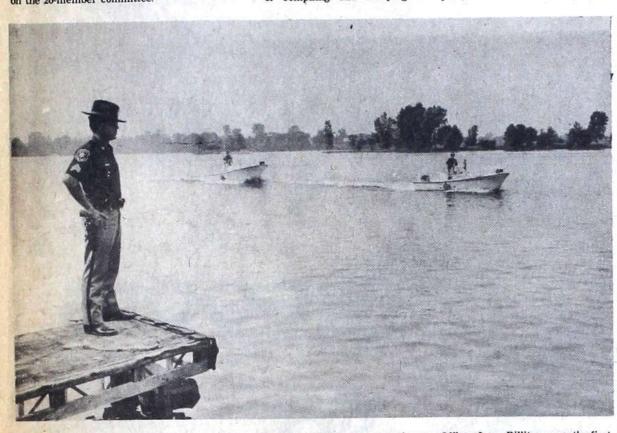

Following consultation and research with experts in areas such as education, health and welfare, natural resources, marketing and farm labor, the committee will draft a slate of policy recommendations for consideration by voting delegates at the annual bureau meeting in December.

The actions of the delegates will determine policies and programs of action for the coming year.

Sheriffs increase lake units

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department Marine Division has added to its marine patrol units on Belleville Lake to meet an increase in boating and other water sports activities.

The sheriff's marine division initiated patrols on Belleville Lake more than 10 years ago. This year, two fully-equipped speed boats have been assigned to the lake.

Marine Division Director Sgt. Fred Reiman said the assignment of an additional marine patrol on the lake was made to meet increased boating

THE TWO MARINE patrol boats

Officers Norman Kohlstrand and Jerry Billiter make daily 8-hour tours of the lake's 20 miles of shoreline, Sgt. Reiman explained.

In addition to patrolling Belleville Lake, the marine division patrols all the lakes in Wayne County as well as the Detroit River from Lake St. Clair to Lake Erie. The division has a staff of eight specially-trained officers who are supported by all of the facilities of the sheriff's department.

"So far this year, the Belleville Lake marine patrols issued 150 water craft citations. Most of the tickets issued were for lack of life saving devices which is required in the operation of any watercraft," Sgt. Reiman said. In addition to watercraft operation violations, the marine patrols have issued many warnings on the observance by boaters of the Marine Wake Law which prohibits speeding and the creation of large wakes within 100 feet of shore, Reiman added.

THE PATROL also has qualified skin divers who recently assisted in the recovery of the body of an 18-year-old Sumpter Township man, who drowned in a man-made pond on Carleton Road near Judd Road in the township.

The two patrol boats are kept at a dock behind 141 High St. on the south shore of the lake, west of the Belleville Road bridge.

HAROLD REDISKE, HAROLD REDISKE, JR.-DIRECTORS

Thomas Jefferson phrased a prayer for our nation which seems appropriate for these days. Read it.

"Almighty God, Who has given us the good land for our heritage, we beseech Thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of Thy favor and glad to do Thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning and pure manners. Save us from violence, discord and confusion; from pride and arrogance and from every evil way. Defend our liberties and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endow with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in Thy name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that through obedience to Thy law, we may show forth Thy praise among the nations of the earth. In time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness and in day of trouble, suffer not our trust in Thee to fail...Amen"...

Is it not truly a fitting prayer for these present times?...

Home ownership has been the dream and goal of most newlyweds since time immemorial. In prehistoric days they moved into a cave and literally fought off anyone who tried to take it away. In later days pioneers went into the wilderness, staked a claim, and depended on occupancy to prove ownership. And not so long ago a couple just stayed on with a parent until the hardearned down payment was in their hands. Todays newlyweds are a different lot. Incomes are higher and independence comes sooner. Tigers in quest of 1st league win

A doctor, statistician and coach

By TOM MOORADIAN

A doctor visiting a patient in his home is as rare as a "Remember Pearl Harbor" sticker.

And doctors are getting even rarer at high school football games these days.

"We just can't get them to come out any more," said Don Domke, the athletic director at Westland John Glern. "In the past you could rely on one or two docs to show up for a game.

"Now, that's almost out of the question," Domke added.

GEORGE LOVICH, the AD at Livonia Franklin High, agreed. "We have had increasing difficulty finding doctors to attend our games this season. It isn't a question that it is a law or anything to have a physician present, but the Michigan High School athletic Association 'highly recommends that a physician be available at football games,' Lovich pointed out.

In light of Thursday's tragedy, it's understandable.

One of John Glenn's junior varsity gridders suffered a broken neck. He was taken to Wayne County General Hospital and is in fair condition.

Before parents start pushing panic buttons, there are plenty of stats to prove that football is one of the safest sports that athletes participate in.

Football's safer than driving a car, would you believe: And please don't ask me to dig out the stats on that one.

Speaking of stats, all football teams should have a statistician like Steve Schwartz.

Schwartz isn't listed on any high school football program in the area, but he's the kind of guy all sports editors admire

Steve employs his mathematical acuity by compiling the Wayne High football grid stats. He has excellent credentials

A FORMER All-Area gridder from St. Mary's of Wayne High, Schwartz attended the University of Michigan and in bygone years could be found in the Wolverine Press Box on Saturdays jotting down the yardage gained and lost and all the other details which are later handed to the writers and used by the university's Sports Information Director.

A teacher in Wayne now, Schwartz spends Friday nights covering the Wayne games. And each minute detail is

And that's one reason why Wayne gets the outstanding coverage it does in football.

For 12 more Schwartzes for the other high schools we cover, we'd do anything.

THIS QUOTE ATTRIBUTED to Bobby Dodd, the Georgia Tech athletic director who retired in 1966, has set the wheels in my mind in motion.

Dodd recently replied when asked what he'd do to change the game of football that, "I would do away with spring practice and take the brutality out of football. I never asked a regular to go through spring practice.

"I would keep football highly competitive but not to the point where alumni, newspaper people, coaches or anyone showed any form of brutality.

"Football can be a beautiful thing ... "

It's the first time I have ever read where newspaper people can show any form of brutality - we depict what we see.

We don't create the news. If football, politics or, you name it, is brutal, then we report it as such.

Romulus comes close, but loses

Romulus dominated Ellis, working the secondary, everything except the score Friday at Ecorse and that left first year Coach Tom Baldwin and the Eagles searching for their first victory after three fruitless starts.

Ecorse scored a touchdown in each of the final three quarters to win its first game

"I felt we dominated the ball said Baldwin whose next job is to try to stop a speedy Inkster contingent. But, the only real stat that counts is the final score and there's where we lost.

INKSTER, which will bring a 1-2 record into Friday afternoon's 3:30 game at Romulus, lost a 9-0 game at Robichaud. However, the Vikings do have speed on this year's model and that worries

"We're going to have to contain that speed," the Eagle mentor said, "they're real

Ecorse broke a scoreless first quarter by putting together a 55-yard drive early in the second frame that ended with Bob Scott scooping into Romulus' endzone from threevards out.

The Red Raiders' attempt for the two-point conversion ran into George Butler and Ed Abbott who immediately destroyed the ballcarrier.

ROMULUS tied it up and scored its first touchdown of the season with 44 seconds remaining to the half. Mike picked off an errant pass and was stopped on his own 40-

After a couple of un-successful plays, Butler threw an excellent block and Larry Courtney scampered 47-yards for a touchdown.

Bob Bloudell tried to put the Eagles ahead, however, his extra point kick sailed wide of the uprights.

Ecorse waited until midway into the third quarter to retaliate as the Red Raiders marched from their own 40vard line to the Romulus goal line where Jerry Doyle slipped in from one yard out.

Later, in the fourth stanza, Scott broke loose and raced 67yards to score Ecorse's third and final TD of the game.

ROMULUS scored its second six-pointer with 1:43 left in the game. Quarterback Mike Morrison engineered a 40-yard drive which was capped by running back Don Moore's 10-yard TD run.

just couldn't contain them."

Bentley put 10 points on the scoreboard in the first quarter and enjoyed a 23-0 lead before the Tigers scored on quarterback Mark Verrot's sevenyard run. That run culminated a 72-yard drive.

BOB LORRAINE, one of the bright spots in Belleville's game, sprinted over the Bentley goal line to contribute the two-point conversion.

Bentley cashed in on a couple of Belleville turnovers and a pass interference call for its go-ahead touchdown. Bruce Boubnek scored on a three-yard run and Tim Oakley booted the extra point with 1:54 left in the initial Belleville's offense failed to materialize in its next series and the Tigers were forced to punt. That kick led to Oakley's 10-yard field goal as Bentley got possession of the ball on the Tiger 36-yard line and drove to the Belleville 10 where the Tigers held.

Oakley then booted the field goal, giving the host a 10-0

BELLEVILLE came alive in the second quarter as the Tigers strung together an impressive drive thanks to Vic Busby's rushes. However, once inside the Bentley 15yard line, Busby fumbled and the host recovered.

Verrot teamed up with Mike Stanley on a 12 yard pass, while Busby contributed 30 vares in four tries and Lorraine picked up six yards

Bentley came out of the lockerroom after the half and dominated the third quarter. The Bulldogs drove from their own 12 to the Belleville 17 before giving up the ball on

Though they didn't score, Bentley "ate up" eight vital

THE HOSTS came back to get a couple of more TD's in the finale as Bill Deacon scored from seven yards out and Russ Hodges tallied on an 11 yard run.

Busby was the Tigers' leading rusher with 36 yards while Lorraine was one shy. Defensively, Dave Dapsi accounted fornine solo tackles and was accredited with five assists while Dan Bragg tallied seven unassisted and three assists. Dan Theodore played his usual good game, counting eight solos and three

IN THE GROOVE - Finding running space is Carlson quarterback Joe Drennen (11) who is out of reach of Huron's Bill Grover (74). Grover and the Chiefs turned in an excellent effort on defense in the first half but the visiting Carlson contingent broke the game open by scoring three touchdowns in the final two quarters to win a 27-0 conference decision. The Chiefs will try to break a three-game losing streak Friday, night at Carleton Airport.

Huron shut out by Carlson, 27-0

The line between the "haves" and "have nots" in the Huron Football Conference has been drawn.

And New Boston Huron has joined the ranks of the "have nots," after losing their third straight, second in the conference to Gibralter Carlson

If Coach Jim Rossow and the Chiefs want to finish with a winning record, then they'll have to move.

Friday night, at Carleton Airport, would be a good place to start. Airport also hasn't landed a league win this season and is having its share of problems.

WE REALLY don't know very much about them," said Rossow, "they have a new coach, so they're playing a different kind of ball game than they used to.

"We know they have one good running back and you can take it from there.'

Huron played a Carlson team to a scoreless first quarter and trailed only by seven after the first half. Carlson exploded for 13 points in the third stanza and added its final TD in the last quarter.

"IFEEL we played a very good first half," said Russow, "then we collapsed, "we helped them out by turning the ball over deep in our territory a couple of times."

Huron also lost the services of its starting quarterback

Craig Beattie who was sidelined in the first quarter with a head injury.

Romant suffers 1st loss

Belleville High's first year cross country coach Bruce Romant got a taste of what its like to lose as a varsity coach last week.

Romant, whose Tigers had won four straight, suffered his first loss as Redford Union nosed the Tigers 29-30 in a Suburban 8 Conference meet last week.

However, Belleville didn't waste any time getting back into the win column. They disposed of Trenton 23-38 in their next outing.

"Also, unfortunately, we competed without two of our top runners," Romant added. In that loss, Redford's John Shannon led two of his teammates across the finish line, giving the winners a 1-2-3 finish. Shannon's time was

BELLEVILLE'S Tom Kof was the first to cross the line for the Tigers. He finished fourth with a 17:16 clocking. Toommate Mike Younge was fifth while Don Buhro placed Trailing Buhro was Dave Palnau (seventh), John Szlinis (eighth), Harold Gable (ninth) and Paul Vas (tenth).

Trenton's Jerry Wojtala beat Randy Block to the finish as he covered the three-mile Metro Park course in a respectable 16:44. Block was clocked in 16:48.

KOF TURNED in a 16:54 in placing third while Donny Buhro, a sophomore, was fifth (17:04). He led Mike Younge (sixth), Gable (seventh), Szlinis (eighth) and Palnau (ninth) to the finish line.
"I'm really pleased about this victory because our sophomores did an outstanding job," commented Romant. "It also helped to solidify the gaps we had in our lineup. Meanwhile, Romulus finally maged to run in a dual meet after two of the Eagles' scheduled meets had been cancelled because of teachers' strikes in neighboring communities. The belated start apparently was worth it. Coach Al Wilkerson's harriers got by Ecorse 25-32. Running on a shortened

In the decade that I have covered this beat no high school basketball player has ever been named to our All-Area cage team three consecutive years.

It has happened in swimming, in cross country, in wrestling and baseball, but not in basketball.

The seniors nearly always have muscled their way on to the mythical "All-Area"

PCHA hospitals reckon with inflation

Shortly after it received word that the Peoples Community Hospital Authority (PCHA) is financially solvent, the PCHA board of directors voted to raise room rate charges at its four facilities

Chrysler Corporation announces a new car warranty with unlimited mileage

For the first 12 months of use, any Chrysler Motors Corporation dealer will fix, without charge for parts or labor, any part of our 1975 passenger cars we supply (except tires) which proves defective in normal use, regardless of mileage.

for one full year.

And that's just the beginning.

We're confident that you'll find everyabout our new '75's-from engineering and styling to economy-easy to say yes to. And for the clincher, we're backing them up with our new Owner Care Program.

It starts with a new 12 month, unlimited mileage warranty so strong and simple it's bound to generate questions. So, right here and now, we offer some answers.

Q. Unlimited mileage sounds simple enough. But what's the catch?

A. There's no catch. The warranty covers every part we put in the car. And it's good for as many miles as you can drive in 12 full months.

Q. What about labor? How much will that cost?

A. Nothing. If Chrysler Corporation put that part on your car, it's covered. Parts and labor. And that goes for everything except tires, which are covered separately by their manufacturer.

Q. But there are some expensive things that could just "wear out" if you drive enough miles even though they're not "defective." You know; brake linings, mufflers, shock absorbers. Do I have to pay for them?

A. No. To a lot of people those might be considered something for you to worry about. But since we want to make your relationship with the car we make as worry-free as possible, we're ready to take on those responsibilities. So, even if they just wear out during the first 12 months of normal use, we'll replace them no matter how many miles you drive.

Q. That's a great "extra." Does it include everything that just wears out?

A. No. We expect you to take care of normal maintenance-the little things like changing filters and wiper blades (unless, of course, they're defective, then they come under the

Q. The only way you could top all that is throw in a free loaner. Uh...do you? A. Sure. If you make an appointment for warranty repairs in advance, and the job cannot be completed from morning until evening of the same working day, participating dealers will supply you with a loaner. Free. Q. Is there anything else I should know?

A. Replacing certain worn out parts, our unlimited mileage warranty and our free loaner program are all just the beginning of a new Owner Care Program, designed to make owning our new cars, so worry-free, they'll be irresistable.

See your Chrysler-Plymouth or Dodge dealer. Ask him about his new cars, then ask him about "The Clincher!"

THE CLINCHER!

It's going to take better care of the people who buy our cars.
